TELEGRAPHIC SUMMARY.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES TO THE NEWS.

John Sherman Will Stand Firm—Items of Interest From all Parts of the Country.

WON'T GIVE IT UP.

CHICAGO, March 12.—M. L. Scudder of this city, has received a letter from John Sherman denying the rumor that he intends to retire from the Presidential contest. Sherman says "I consider myself a candidate, and I shall do so to the end, but don't think it necessary to belittle or arraign Gen. Grant, Senator Blaine or any one else, or to use my official position to promote my candidacy."

THE PAPER BUSINESS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 11.—Hon. Erastus Brooks, of the New York Express, and George Jones, of the New York Times, appeared before the House Ways and Means committee to-day, and urged the removal of the duty of twenty per cent. on wood pulp used in making paper, holding that it would tend to neutralize the efforts of a combination of the paper manufacturers to force the price of paper up.

The Smith Paper Co. of Lee, Mass.; Bulkly, Duaton & Co; Hon. William A. Russell, of Lawrence, Mass.; Hon. Warner Miller, of New York, and others represented in the paper manufacture were represented on the other side of the question. They declared that no combination to enhance prices exists; that the advance in the price of paper results from the natural operations of the law of the supply and demand; and that while the removal of the duty named would injure those engaged in developing a process for making cheap paper stock, it would not regulate the price of paper.

The committee will meet again to-morrow.

POSTPONED.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—The letting of mail contracts for steamboat routes for the southeastern section has been postponed until April 1st, and bids from the owners of steamboats will be received up to that date.

MONEY SHORT.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—The bill for the application of unclaimed bounty money of colored soldiers to the education of the colored race was, to-day, reported to the Senate adversely by Senator Bruce, from the Committee on Education and Labor. The committee, finding that from present indications, said money will all be needed to meet lawful claims that are constantly being presented.

PROTEST AGAINST IT.

NEW ORLEANS, March 12—The sugar refiners, planters and merchants held a meeting last night, and adopted a preamble and resolutions protesting against the condemnation of the Ways and Means Committee by New York importers and refiners. They state that many of those composing the New York meeting were before that committee, and failed to convince them that public interest required the changes in the tariff advocated by importers and refiners. We appeal, say the resolutions, to Congress, through the Ways and Means Committee, not to jeopardize by adverse legislation the existence of the Louisiana sugar industry, affording as it does the principal source of support to over 300,000 people, and thus to advance the prosperity of Cuban planters by securing the market to slave grown sugars of that island: and further, that while existing legislation on this subject is not adequate to our wants, because Louisiana is at present in a depressed condition of the sugar industry, it needs all the protection that revenue tariff strictly enforced incidentally affords; still we acquiesce in it rather than continue agitation which threatens changes that would seriously affect the credit and energy of the producer, and tend to ruin an industry in Louisiana.

MURDER CASE.

DEKALB, Miss., March 12.—The case against Virgil and Houston Gully, for the murder of Gilmer, is still occupying the time of the court here. Not a juryman has been obtained within the past thirty-six hours. Six are now in the box, and but little hope remains of completing the jury at all.

SENT TO PROTECT OYSTERMEN.

FREDERICKSBURG, Va., March 12—Arms and ammunition were sent to Lancaster county by the State authorities yesterday, to protect the Oystermen of lower Rappahannoch from foreign dredgers.

DIED.

RICHMOND, March 12.—Wm. T. Taylor, late Auditor of Public Accounts of Virginia, died in this city last night of heart disease.

SAN FRANCISCO QUIET YET.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., March 11.—Everything was quiet last night. There were several ordinary meetings of the workingmen's ward clubs, at which the Citizens' Protective Union and the arrest of Kearney were vigorously denounced. It is not learned that Kearney attended any of them. The Executive Committee is said to have held a meeting to day, but nothing is known of the proceedings.

FOREIGN FLASHES.

LONDON, March 12.—There has been a sudden outbreak of fever on Kare Island, near the Cape Clear Islands, by which sixty-three persons are prostrated and one case resulting in death.

The total subscription for the Cunard Steamship shares approach five million pounds. The shares offered have been applied for, and are nearly four times over the British ship, John Murphy, from New Orleans, who lost her main mizzentop, gallant masts and sails.

LONDON, March 12.—The conservative and ministerial journals declare the budget statement satisfactory. The Daily News says the budget is framed on "happy go lucky" principles. It makes no important changes, but simply says: 'Here is an inconvenient load of debt. Let us see if we cannot lift it off our shoulders and on to the shoulders of some one else."

The Times says the budget was predestined to be unsatisfactory, and it will not stir the pulse of the country in favor of the ministry, but, on the other hand, will hardly furnish opposition with the new arsenal of weapons for the coming campaign.

A dispatch from Shanghai to the Reuters Telegraph Company dated to-day reports that Chung Chow, late ambassador to Russia, who negotiated the Kuldja treaty, has been behead d, and that a revolt has broken out at Pekin.

BERLIN, March 12.—The Governmental Post states that Prince Bismarck has ordered a collection of diplomatic documents attesting the hostile intentions of Russia towards Germany. The volume will include papers bearing upon the Prince Gortschakoff propositions to France for the conclusion of the anti-German alliance."

Conkling's Indiscretion.

Indianapolis Journal (Rep.)

Senator Conkling is reported as saying "Grant is the only man the Republican party can run to be sure to take his seat if elected. The Democrats do not intend that we shall seat our President if we elect him. This is the last time we elect a President under the present census. Let the Democrats be in power when the new census goes into effect and under their manipulation they will hold it for at least a decade." If Senator Conkling is correctly reported in this, we must take leave to say we think it a indiscreet utterance. It is not the part of a wise leader or a shrewd politician to announce in advance that his party can only succeed under our leader. That virtually gives up the contest, except in one contingency. We like better the leadership which declares that the Republican party can and must win, no matter who the nominee may be. That is the kind of Republicans we are in Indiana.

An English View of our Tariff.

In publishing the fact of the presentation of the memorial to Congress, asking an abatement of the duty on steel rails, and a summary of its contents, the Pall Mall Gazette observes: "The official statements of which we have given an epitome are drawn up by men and position and responsibility, who have the best means of knowing the facts, and upon whom descends no small part of the monstrous burden of this protective duty of 130 per cent. If it should prove to be really the fact, as these railway presidents say, that for several years to come the United States will require about 700,000 tons of steel rails more than can be supplied from its domestic manufacture, we may look forward to prosperous times in our own steel and iron districts. There is now going to happen in the United States a state of things highly illustrative of the indirect and collateral dangers entailed by protected interests. The present tariff is so extravagantly profitable to the iron and steel-makers that they have the strongest conceivable motives to defend it at all costs and hazards; and, therefore, to resort at Washington to every device of lobbying most pernicious, dangerous to public liberty, and most debasing to private character. Still, the facts are so flagrant, and the loss to the railway projectors and makers so overwhelming, that some relief can hardly be withheld long, especially as the census of this year will transfer to the West from the East a large share of political power."

John Bright on the South.

The Atlanta (Ga.) Constitution publishes the following letter, addressed by Mr. John Bright to a gentleman of that city, and dated London, England, February 19th:

"I thank you for sending me your little book. I have not yet seen it, as it is doubtless at my home in Lancashire. I did not omit notice of the South, for I said a good deal about Texas. As for your old slave South, you will have few Englishmen settling there so long as the evil temper of your people continues to exist. We heard of the ill treatment of the negro, and of the hostile disposition of many of your white population toward families who come from the North. I know not how much of this is true; but so long as the belief in its truth exists, your Southern States will make small progress in comparison with the North and West. You have soil and climate, but you will not easily or speedily shake off the old curse and men from Europe will prefer a country where slavery has not prevailed, and where the negro is not a considerable portion of your population. They will think the North and West offer a better field for them, with more real freedom and less of the elements of discord. I wish all your States a growing prosperity.

The Patriot and Star Agree.

Greensboro Patriot.

The Wilmington Star says: "The State Agricultural Board had to go all the way to Massachusetts to find a successor to Prof. Ledoux. We are sorry there was no Southern man qualified. But what if the extra session should take a notion to abolish the whole concern? There is music of the kind in the air."

"In this section of North Carolina, the people say, "down with the department of Agriculture." We may refer to this subject hereafter. We don't say, abolish the department.

The News from Maine.

Hop Bitters, which are advertised in our columns, are a sure cure for ague, biliousness and kidney complaints. Those who use them they cannot be too highly recommended. Those afflicted should give them a fair trial, and will become thereby enthusiastic in the praise of their curative qualities.—Portland Ad.

CONGRESS YESTERDAY.

GORDON'S RESOLUTION ON THE INTEROCEANIC CANAL.

Animated Debate on the Appropriation for U. S. Marshals—Mr. Steele and the Indians.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 12.—Senator Vance, from the District Committee, reported favorably a bill for the protection of the Potomac river fisheries. Placed on calendar.

Senator Williams presented a joint resolution from the Kentucky Legislature, instructing the Senators from Kentucky to urge the passage of the bill reducing the salary of the President of the United States.

Senator Bruce, from the Committee on Education and Labor, reported adversely a bill to provide for the investment of certain unclaimed pay and bounty moneys now in the Treasury, and to facilitate the education of the colored race. Indefinitely postponed.

Senator Gordon asked unanimous consent for the present consideration of his resolution for the appointment of a special committee on the interoceanic canal.

Senator Maxey objected, remarking that justice to committees required that business on the calendar be disposed of.

After debate, Senators Gordon and Groome withdrew their resolutions for the appointment of a special committee on the interoceanic canal, and the resolution of Senator Platt, requesting the President to communicate to foreign governments a desire of this government to secure the neutrality of any transit route across the Isthmus, etc., was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations.

Sena or Gordon from the Committee on Commerce reported adversely on the Senate bill amending, enrolling and licensing act of 1793. Indefinitely postponed.

The morning hour having expired the Senate resumed the consideration of the bill for the relief of Fitz John Porter.

Senator Jones, of Florida, having the floor, Senator Allison announced that immediately after Senator Jones' remarks, he would ask for the consideration of the fortification appropriation to the exclusion of all other business.

Senator Jones then proceeded to speak in support of the bill. He held that the power of Congress over the court martial was unlimited under the Constitution. The President derives his power of approval of the sentences from articles of war, which are created by Congress. He did not think the President's pardoning power was intended to be exercised over persons in the army and navy. Congress could take to itself the approval of the sentences and in that case the President could not interfere to the pardon. He thought Congress had unlimited power over the whole subject and could reverse or annul any proceedings of courts martial. The approval of the President is a part of the Judicial act of the court martial. How can he exercise the pardoning power in the matter in which he judicially acted. How can he undo as President what he does as an agent of Congress?

Senator Carpenter said that the approval was in his capacity as commander-in-chief. Pardon was in his capacity as chief magistrate under the Constitution.

Senator Jones responded that the army was under the despotic power of Congress. The Constitution did not contemplate the Presidential pardon of the offenders in the military service.

He differed from the Senator from Wisconsin, (Carpenter) who thought the President had power to appoint all the officers in the army.

The Constitution vested all the military matters absolutely in Congress. Any other arrangement would plainly be dangerous. In time of danger a habeas corpus could be suspended and all power be centered in the hands of the military commander. Was his judgment to be conclusive on the subject to a possible pardon and preclude Congressional relief?

Mr. Jones thought that part of the sentence of Porter, imposing political disabilities, was null and void, the sentence of a soldier could not abrogate the rights of a citizen.

He regarded the doctrine held by the opponents of the bill as full of danger to our institutions.

At the conclusion of Jone's remarks, Davis, of West Virginia, moved that the pending bill be postponed and that the Senate proceed to consider the fortifications appropriation bill, the effect of which action would be to carry the Porter bill to the foot of the calendar.

Senator Logan moved to indefinitely postpone the Porter bill.

Senator Davis, of West Virginia, moved to lay the Porter bill on the table.

President pro tem, (Edmunds) ruled that this motion superseded that of the Senator of Ill., (Logan) and the motion was agreed to by a viva voce vote and the bill was laid on the table, subject to be called up by a majority vote.

The fortifications appropriation bill was then taken up and at 4 p. m., the Senate went into an executive session and when the doors were reopened adjourned.

Senator Kellogg rose to a question of personal privilege. He sent to the clerk's desk and had read a copy of the New Orleans Democrat, containing an extract from the Charleston News alleging that the woman Jessie Raymond was brought to Washington by Kellogg for the purpose of influencing the action on his contested election case. Senator Kellogg said the article was false in every particular and denounced its authors as cowards who dared not make an open attack but stabbed men in the back. He offered a resolution for the appointment of a committee of five Senators to investigate the charges.

Senator Thurman asked if the Senate had come to such degradation as to notice every newspaper article scandalizing a Senator. When the resolution came up he should move to table it and let it sleep forever. The resolution went over under rules. The Senate then adjourned until Monday.

HOUSE.

Mr. Manning, of Mississippi, asked leave to offer a preamble and resolution (similar to that offered in the Senate some days ago) reciting the alleged contract entered into by the Union Pacific Railroad Company, Central Pacific Railroad Company, and Pacific Mail Steamship Company, and directing the committee on Judiciary to inquire specifically whether such contract exists and to report what legislation is necessary to protect the public interest in the premises, giving said committee leave to sit during recess and report by bill or otherwise.

Mr. Newberry, of Michigan, objected.

On motion of Mr. McMahon, Ohio, the morning hour was dispensed with and private business laid aside.

Mr. McMahon proposed back the deficiency appropriation bill from the Appropriations Committee with an amendment appropriating six hundred thousand dollars for the payment of fees and expenses of United States marshals and their general deputies, thus making the total amount appropriated by the bill $1,265,530.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole on this bill.

Mr. McMahon pointed out that the bill made no appropriation for special deputy marshals, and said he doubted whether the Democratic party ever would appropriate money for special deputies so long as the law stood in its present shape.

After some sparring between Messrs. McMahon and Hawley (Conn.), as to the question whether the liability for payment of special deputy marshals was a public debt or private debt of the Republican party, Mr. McMahon resumed his remarks upon the bill, attacking especially the extravagant administration of the Government printing office.

Mr. Hiscock, New York, defended the Public Printer from the charge of squandering the public funds, and as to Mr. McMahon's statement that the Democrats would not appropriate money for special deputy marshals, he said the Democrats had gone to the country on that issue and been defeated, referring especially to the elections in Ohio. He was surprised, he said, that the Democrats, after such an experience, should come back and announce that they would not obey the decision of the Supreme Court.

Mr. McMahon replied that the debt had been incurred in advance of appropriations contrary to law.

Mr. Hiscock said he thought the Democrats would eventually pay it.

After a speech by Mr. Finley, Ohio, attacking the administration of the Government printing office, the committee rose.

Mr. Scales, N. C., introduced a bill appropriating $380 000 to ratify and carry out the agreement with the Ute Indians for the sale of their lands. Referred.

The House then adjourned until Monday.

Mutilating Silver Coin—The Practice Increasing.

Washington Post.

Coin "sweating," by which a portion of the metal is taken away and its absence only ascertained by carefully weighing the coin, has long been a device of counterfeiters and those who make "sweating" a business. Until a few months ago the gold coins were the only ones that were mutilated for fraudulent purposes. The case is different now. It is evident that the various silver coins are being tampered with. Complaints to this effect have been received at the Treasury Department. It is almost impossible to detect the mutilators as long as the people take the coins. They have been so accustomed to take pieces of silver with holes bored in them that they go on taking them. A great portion of the silver in circulation during the war was thus treated, not for fraudulent purposes, but as the coin was scarce, it became the proper thing to wear them as watch charms or around the neck. For this purpose holes were bored in them.

Much of the silver now in circulation with holes bored through was the silver of the war. They are not, however, worth their face value. The Treasury will not redeem them, which is the test of their valuation. The Government will only take them back in its purchases of silver bullion. As the coined pieces represent a greater value on their face than the bullion in them will bring, the holder of every one of these coins is, in fact, out from one to thirteen cents, according to the denomination. But still the mutilated coins increase. The people as a general thing do not mutilate them; they have no reason for it now. It is the work of "professionals." They go at it as a business, and are making a very good thing out of it. They can cut a good-sized hole into every coin that comes to hand, and still pass the coin at its full value. The standard silver dollars have been attacked. Nobody can possibly want to wear one of those as a charm, but still it is becoming apparent to everybody that the dollar of our daddies is being cut and hacked for the bullion that is taken from it. The Treasury has been urged to stop this, but as long as the people take the mutilated coin it is impossible to stop the practice. It is not like counterfeiting. It is stated that dealers who handle a great deal of coin make a practice of cutting a little out of each unmutilated one, and of selling the silver thus obtained. The penalty for fraudulently mutilating coins is a fine of not more than $2,000 and imprisonment for not more than two years.

WHO ARE THE SUFFERERS.

Large manufacturers seem to suffer most from this practice, as they are the most frequent complainants. Everybody does not know that the Treasury will not redeem coin whose value is by any means impaired. For a long time such coins have been sent at infrequent intervals to the department for redemption. The rapidity of the growth of the evil cannot be better shown than by the fact that the receipts of packages of such coins are now almost of daily occurrence at the division of redemption. They are always shipped back, at the expense of the sender. One of the complaints that have been received at the Treasury growing out of coin mutilation has resulted rather singularly. The cashier of a large manufacturing establishment took in a silver quarter dollar, with a big hole in it. Upon examination he found engraved on it a name, a date, and an address in small letters. He sent the coin to the chief of secret service, and suggested that this was a chance to arrest a man for mutilating coin. Chief Brooks sent it to the postmaster of the place, with the request that he inquire into the case. The postmaster found the man whose name was on the coin. He was delighted to hear about it. During the war a young lady had given the coin to him all fixed up, and he had worn it as a watch charm. He lost it about eight years ago, and had advertised, offering five dollars for its return. He gave a good quarter for the "memento," and the good quarter has been sent to the cashier of the manufactory making the complaint

THE COMING CROWN.

HIS IMPERIAL MAJESTY ULYSSES I. WILL WEAR IN 1882.

Pungent Pen Pictures of the Coming Empire—Lords and Ladies, Dukes and Duchesses.

One of the cleverest satires of the day is an anonymous phamphlet, just issued, entitled "The Coming Crown," giving a prophetic pen picture of the coming empire under "His Imperial Majesty. Emperor Ulysses I." It is illustrated with a cut of a crown, and some of its hits are admirable. The chief extracts are taken from the Court Journal, dated Washington, September 1, 1882, and dated Washington, October, 1, 1882, to which various telegrams are credited from different sections of the country, telling of the troubles with such insurgents as Blaine, and others, of the progress of imperialism, of the gorgeous and numberless imperial troops. The following extracts will be relished by the lovers of polished wit, whatever may be their views of imperialism:

HIS IMPERIAL MAJESTY, EMPEROR ULYSSES I.

From the Court Journal, Washington, September 1, 1882.

His imperial majesty, the Emperior Ulysses I., accompanied by the empress, the Crown Prince Frederick and a numerous suite, arrived at the palace yesterday after a week's visit to the duke of Pennsylvania at his pantial residence, Cameron Hall, Harrisburg. His imperial majesty, we are happy to announce, is in the best of health. The imperial escort consisted of a battalion of the guards and two companies of the household cavalry.

THE PRINCESS NELLIE.

Her royal highness, the Princess Nellie, will not return to England. We are in a position to state that the consort of her royal highness, Algernon Sartoris, Esq., is to be raised to the peerage under the title of earl of Granton. We further understand that the earl of Granton is to be appointed governor, with the title of lord lieutenant of the province of Illinois and that it is the intention of the imperial government to settle $200,000 per annum upon his lordship. A vice-regal palace is to be built at Springfield, the privy council having issued an order for the raising of the capital of the former State of Illinois, and the residence of the lord lieutenant will be erected on the site.

LORD SHARON, EARL OF NEVADA.

Lord Sharon, earl of Nevada, is expected to arrive at the palace on the 5th instant. His lordship, who has during the past month, been entertaining a number of the western nobility at his magnificent residence, Belmont hall, San Francisco, is understood to have successfully conducted the negotiations which resulted in California giving her assent to the propositions made by the imperial government. In view of his lordship's distinguished diplomatic services in thus eradicating the last vestiges of republicanism in the western part of the empire, we have reason to know that his imperial majesty intends conferring upon his lordship the honor of the order of the mailed hand.

LORD SIMON CAMERON, EARL OF SUSQUEHANNA.

It is with great pleasure that we are enabled to announce the arrival of Lord Simon Cameron, earl of Susquehanna, at the palace. The venerable earl and his son, the noble duke of Pennsylvania, will have the honor of dining with his imperial majesty to-morrow, when the duke is expected to arrive in town. As we have previously announced, Lord Simon was, some time ago, appointed by his imperial majesty earl marshal, the title remaining in the house of Cameron, according to the law of primogeniture.

Lord and Lady Hamilton Fish have arrived at the palace, Lord Hamilton will receive final instructions before his departure for England as imperial minister to the court of St. James. Lady Fish will not, we understand, accompany the noble lord, but will remain during the coming season in attendance on her majesty as principal lady in waiting.

WASHBURNE, DUKE OF ILLINOIS.

Cards have been issued by the duke of Illinois for a garden party at Washburne house, the splendid residence lately completed by his grace, and to which his grace has given the family name, for the evening of the 12th inst. The noble duke, whose appointments as prime minister by his imperial majesty has given such profound satisfaction in court circles, will, we understand, entertain during the coming season with ducal hospitality. Her grace, the duchess of Illinois, returned from the country last week.

SIR O. E. BABCOCK, PRINCIPAL EQUERRY.

Sir O. E. Babcock, whose devotion to the imperial cause and whose conspicuous gallantry at Albany, New York, when the Republican army under Fenton was so completely defeated by the imperial troops have deservedly gained him so many marks of imperial favor, is now, we are glad to state, quite convalescent. He remains at the imperial villa, Long Branch, for a few days more, when he will return to the palace to enter on his duties as principal equerry in attendance on his imperial majesty.

LORDS AND LADIES VISITING.

Lord and Lady Edwards Pierrepont, Baron Jay Gould and Sir Whitelaw Reid, of New York, who have been on a visit to Lord George M. Robeson, of New Jersey, at Socor Hall, Cape May, arrived in town yesterday for the season.

BENNETT AND CROWN PRINCE FREDERICK.

The magnificent yacht which his imperial highness, the Crown Prince Frederick, has been pleased to accept as a present from James Gordon Bennett, Esq., of New York, has arrived in the Potomac. She is named the "Ulysses," and is a masterpiece of naval architecture.

THE DUKE AND DUCHESS OF NEW YORK.

The duke and duchess of New York are expected to arrive in town for the season on Tuesday next. The ducal residence, Conkling house, is rapidly approaching completion, and promises in point of architectural beauty to equal any of the many splendid houses of the nobility erected in the capital since his imperial majesty ascended the throne. Invitations will shortly be issued by his grace for the ball which is to be given when Conkling house is opened, and the event promises to be one of extraordinary magnificence.

BLAINE SENTENCED TO BANISHMENT.

Imperial Standard, Washington, October 1, 1882.

An official telegram published elsewhere in this issue brings intelligence of the trial and conviction by military commission of James G. Blaine, of Maine, and the sentence of banishment passed by the commission will in all probability be approved by his imperial majesty. We think the commission erred in its decision—not as to the guilt, but as to the punishment of the offender. The time has passed for measures of mercy. Justice demands something more. It demands stern retribution for such offences as this man Blaine has committed, and the punishment awarded should have been death. Let there be no trifling with traitors! When twenty so-called union leaguers were shot in Cincinnati it should have been a warning to rebels that the policy of the imperial government was not to regard sedition as child's play. Of what use is banishment if such men as John Sherman, James G. Blaine and Rutherford B. Hayes can concoct their plots and plans against the safety of the empire on the Canadian side of the border, and send their emissaries to spread disloyalty in every part of the country? We are not apologists for the course thus far pursued by the imperial government. We have been and are now its advocates. We have, and must continue to have, a strong government, and vacillation or timidity, be they in what quarter they may, must neither be condoned nor tolerated. The lessons of the past must not be forgotten.

THE GODDESS OF LIBERTY DEPOSED.

The old figure of liberty, which surmounted the dome of the capitol here, has been taken down and a colossal statue of His Imperial Majesty, the Emperor Ulysses I., is to replace it. The statue will be of bronze, and is after a design furnished by Mills. The figure will be surmounted by a crown which at night will be illuminated by the electric light, and thus be visible for nearly fifty miles.

THE IMPERIAL ARMY.

Army and Navy News.

It has been officially decided by the minister of war that the new uniform of the cavalry of the line shall be somewhat similar to those of the German uhlans. The imperial guards will be uniformed after the style of the royal life guards of the British service, and the household cavalry will retain their present picturesque and distinctive style. It is understood that the strength of the army in time of peace has been decided on after a conference of the principal officers of rank at which his imperial majesty presided. The effective strength of the line, including infantry, cavalry and artillery, as well as the engineers, signal corps, etc., will be 400,000 men.

Two Women who Danced.

New York Letter in the St. Louis Rep.

When Venturoli used to bound upon the stage of Niblo's in the sumptuous spectacle of the "Black Crook" and execute a pirouette as she reached the foot-lights, she was bombarded with bouquets and greeted with applause. She was the favorite of the bald-headed old gentlemen who occupied the front seats, and who regarded with delight the beauty of her figure and the grace of her movements. She was as agile as mortals can be, and seemed to be as light as a feather. Her wonderful toe performances were the talk of the transient visitors to New York. On Tuesday she was an applicant for alms at the Bank of North America, in Wall street, and the President, William L. Jenkins, caused her arrest for begging. Then she hobbled off to the Tuombs. Her fleecy costume and silk tights and in the hard course of life given place to old tattered rags. Her once pretty face had been distorted by paralysis, blurred by exposure and disfigured of its beauty by distress. Her graceful figure was crippled by rheumatism and cramped by paralysis, and she leaned heavily on a cane as she walked. A ragged urchin, who is her nephew, accompanied her. Erminia Venturoli was eighteen years old when she came to this country. She was prima danseuse in the original "Black Crook" company, sharing the houses with Bonfanti. The severe strain upon her throughout the long run of the "Black Crook" and of the "White Fawn" which followed it produced paralysis, and for the twelve years she has been unable to dance. She was ultimately forced to beg, and being unable to speak English, she carried about a card on which was printed in brief the story of the transformation in her life and a blessing of "health, happiness and prosperity" to all her benefactors. The justice exacted a promise from her that she would not beg again and discharged her.

Bonfanti, her companion, is more prosperous in life. She was the prettier of the two, and better endowed mentally. When she was dancing in Niblo's a young Mr. Hoffman, son of Mr. Hoffman, a Fifth avenue millionaire, fell desperately in love with her. He sent her bouquets and billet-doux, and every night was in the orchestra intently regarding her, blind to all the rest of the spectacle. He secured an introduction and speedily proposed marriage. She, with more experience in the world, advised him to cool his brain by a trip into the country, and warned him that it was a disease of adolescence to become madly in love with a ballet-dancer. She rejected him, and although won to be his friend by his generous qualities and the gleam of manliness in him, she advised him to think no more about her, and accordingly limited his visits. She sailed for Europe, and he followed in the next steamer. He pursued her to London, and, protesting that his love was sincere, at length won her hand in marriage.

The New York family, of course, was much shocked by the alliance. The youth's wild oats had cost his father over one hundred thousand dollars, but when he heard of his son's marriage to Bofanti, he stopped his allowance. His London bankers, however, continued to supply the boy with money, expecting that they would be reimbursed, but, finding their mistake, they, too, ceased to advance him funds. Poverty rapidly settled down upon the strangely-mated couple. Hoffman's health and spirits began to fail and he concluded to return to New York. Bonfanti went back to her old life as a prima danseuse, and soon was in New York again. Her husband was sick and she did not get to see him. He soon died. She had never seen any of his family or friends, but she went to the funeral dressed in mourning, and, as she stood by his coffin, attracted attention by her tears. She followed the body to the grave and sincerely mourned her husband's death. Her manner pleased the dead boy's relatives, and after the funeral they called upon her, and found her, to their surprise, to be a lady of gentle manners and refined speech. They offered then to recognize her as the son's widow and give her a home. She politely refused, saying that she was amply able to support herself, and should continue to do so. So she is still on the stage, a pretty and popular danseuse, and off the stage a respected and good woman—as many of her class are unjustly credited not to be.

CURRENT NEWS FROM THE NATIONAL CAPITOL.

Cameron Hopeful for Grant—The Government Printing Fund Short—Discussion of Duty on Salt.

Richmond Dispatch, 12th.

Senator Cameron says to Pennsylvanians now here that Grant will certainly be nominated. They inform him that if there is a ballot Blaine will get a portion of the Pennsylvania delegates.

The Colorado delegation do not like the treaty between Mr. Schurz and the Utes, because it allows Ouray and some of his Utes to settle in Colorado.

At the Government printing-office they have stopped printing anything except the bills and the Record, and when asked to-day by one of the officers of Congress whether they could not print an important report, replied that they had neither money nor men, and could not do it. They will have money, however, before long, and then the hundreds of printers now walking about the streets of Washington will go back to work again.

Washington Star, 11th.

Representatives Hiscock and Hoar made arguments before the House committee of Ways and Means to-day in opposition to the removal of the duty on salt. There are four bills now before the committee, providing for the repeal of the duty, and those in favor of the measure will be heard at a subsequent meeting of the committee.

The House committee on Epidemic Diseases agreed to-day to report to the House, with recommendations for passage the following measures: Joint resolution authorizing the President to call an international sanitary conference, to meet at Washington, D. C.; Senate bill, with amendments, "to increase the efficiency of the National Board of Health;" joint resolution to print 10,000 copies of the report of the National Board of Health, and 10,000 copies of the report of the Yellow Fever Commission.

The bill which has now passed both Houses, authorizing the employment of additional department clerks, provides an appropriation of $48,000 for the employment of additional clerks in the Pension office at salaries not exceeding $100 per month; also, an appropriation of $4,800 for the employment of twelve additional clerks in the office of the Second Auditor at a salary not to exceed $100 per month, for the balance of the current fiscal year

Progress.

Correspondence of the News.

OXFORD, March 11.—A progressive negro, prior to the war, was telling about the wonderful improvement in his conscience. He said when he commenced making baskets on Sunday, he was not exactly satisfied that it was right. But as he progressed in his business, his conscience not only approved the making but the selling of them on Sunday. He was a progressive genius and no doubt stood much higher in the estimation of those with whom he spent his money, than others did who thought a strict observance of the Lord's day was a duty incumbent on good citizens.

In our little inland towns (and elsewhere) there are too many such progressive characters with elastic, or no conscience at all. They seem to care but little for the moral condition of others around them. They are so public spirited and progressive in their views that they can violate the laws of God and their country in a manner that show that their minds are oblivious to the higher sense of duty that actuates others. They are not ignorant their duty as citizens, nor of the laws of their country. If they were they would not close the front door of their groggery on Sunday, and open a passway in the rear, through which deluded ones may enter in their progress to still deeper moral degradation and ruin. In order to obtain license to pursue their soul corrupting and degrading their business, they proved that they were men of "good moral character." Well, really, if they were in possession of such a desirable thing as a "good moral character," what a pity it is such good article should be brought under suspicion of not being so good as the witnesses testified it was before the licensing tribunal. A good moral character is a good thing to have, and those blessed with it are very apt to show it in their self respect and regard for the moral standing of those around them. Like begets like. And when men have made such rapid progress in soul-hardened iniquity that they can desecrate God's holy day, in defiance of the laws of their country, by decoying through back doors thoughtless young men into their drinking and gambling saloons on Sunday, they have reached a point in progressive guilt that should cause the strong arm of law and the frowns of an outraged public to teach them now to make rapid progress backward out of their business. Licensing tribunals are far outside of their line of duty when they attempt to raise revenue for charitable and christian purposes by licensing men who are vile enough to gratify their avaricious desires, by desecrating the Sabbath without the fear of God before their eyes. An intruding wolf that thirsts for the hearts' blood of the flock may be driven from the fold, or be made to kiss the earth by the shepherd's well-aimed rifle; and the ravages of the small-pox can be arrested by timely foreboughtand prudent action. But when licensing tribunals place soul-hardened desecrators of the Sabbath behind their drinking and gambling saloons, vile enough to mislead young beardless boys into habits of vice, by slyly selling whisky to them on Sunday, contrary to the known wishes of their parents—the laws of God and of their country—where can the broken hearted mothers of the land look to for protection and hope, as they stand by the grave of their fallen, ruined, and profligate sons?

A whisky vendor that has enough self-respect to obey the laws of God and of his country, by closing his doors on Sunday, may have some redeeming qualities; but for the vile defier of the laws of God and of his country, I have no apology to offer. They are moral Upas', sending out their moral malaria of death around them.

Shrewdness and Ability.

Hop Bitters so freely advertised in all the papers, secular and religious, are having a large sale, and are supplanting all other medicines. There is no denying the virtues of the Hop plant, and the proprietors of these Bitters have shown great shrewdness and ability in compounding a Bitters, whose virtues are so palpable to every one's observation.—Exchange.

DAILY NEWS

GEO. C JORDAN, Editor and Propr.

SAURDAY MARCH 13 1880.

A HEAVY bar has been formed in the approaches to New York harbor, partly by the late storms and partly by dumping refuse. One steamship has already grounded on this new bar, and was with difficulty gotten off. Since then a Red Hook fisherman has complained to the Pilot Commissioners that his business was being ruined by the dumping of the city garbage into the bay; for that where he formerly caught fish he now hauls up tin kettles and preserve cans. Complaint was also made that two of the Morris & Cummings steamers broke their screws in consequence of what was being dumped in the channel between Bedloe's Island and the Jersey flats.

THE Virginia Legislature has adjourned sine die without passing the regular appropriation bills. It appears, however, that this omission will not necessitate the calling of an extra session, as money for the expenses of the State government can be paid out under the old laws, at the discretion of the governor. An extra session could not be convened, even for a fews days, at an expense of less than from $30,000 to $50,000, and, as the State is but poorly provided with funds, it is stated that Governor Holliday is of the opinion that this outlay should be avoided. He will, therefore, direct the disbursement of money for ordinary expenses, under the acts passed by the previous Legislature.

THE chief of the bureau of statistics furnishes the following information, derived from official returns, in regard to immigration into the port of New York. There arrived at the port of New York, during the month of February, 1880, 10,063 passengers, 8,323 of whom were immigrants. During the corresponding period of 1879 the total number of passengers arrived at the port was 4,116, of whom 2,818 were immigrants. Of the total arrivals of immigrants at the port, during the month of February, 1880, there were from England, 1,959; Scotland, 346; Wales, 56; Ireland, 1,959; Germany, 2,085; Austria, 196; Sweden, 290; Norway, 74; Denmark, 83; France, 143; Switzerland, 269; Italy, 522; Holland, 64; Belgium, 35; Russia, 154; Poland, 30; Hungary, 456; Cuba, 8; all other countries, 27. The arrivals of immigrants at the port of New York during the twelve months ended February 29, 1880, foot up 147,963, against 82,454 during the twelve months ended February 28, 1870.

THE CONDITION OF THE WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA RAILROAD--WHAT IS THE REMEDY?

We are credibly informed that the present condition of that portion of the Western North Carolina Railroad from Salisbury to Morganton, is such that unless it is thoroughly and speedily repaired it is likely soon to become unfit for use.

It is said that the iron in many places is worn out and dangerous and the cross-ties are rotten and unsafe. The utmost length of time a cross-tie should be permitted to remain upon a road we believe is fifteen years, and a large proportion of the cross-ties upon the road have been in use for a much longer time. It is also said that the engines and other rolling stock belonging to the road are becoming dilapidated from constant use. In addition to this we learn that the financial condition of the road is anything but satisfactory. We understand that the running expenses of the road largely overbalance its receipts and the road is in arrears to its employees for more than three months. It is even said that recently on a train just about to go through the tunnel there was not enough oil on hand to fill the lamps and that consequently the train was hustled through in gloom and darkness. And this on account of the impecuniosity of the road.

Now all these things are unpleasant to contemplate, or to mention, and we do not allude to them for the purpose of attempting to saddle any one with blame. We are well aware of the capacity and honesty of the officers of the road, and we are also well aware that with the limited means at their command its condition is beyond their control. But it may, with propriety and pertinancy, be asked whether or not those members of the board of directors who are contesting the sale of the road are really advised of its actual condition? We assume that they are, for it is simply an assumption that they have performed their duty, and that they are familiar with the condition of the road and its necessities. If so, why have they kept so silent about the matter while pressing upon the public mind the duty of the State to complete and own the road? That portion of the road now in operation, after a fashion, must be put in proper condition or abandoned. Have they considered the necessity of doing so, and calculated the amount that will be requisite for that purpose, to say nothing of the amount that will be needed to complete the road? We assume that they have done so, because it was their duty. If so, why have they not suggested some method by which it can be done? By taxation? No, they will not suggest that, because of the self-evident fact that the people of North Carolina do not intend to pay any more taxes for the maintenance and repair of an elephant of which they can rid themselves at a profit. And if not by taxation, then how? By putting a mortgage upon the road? No, that is not practicable. No such mortgage bonds could be sold unless the payment of the interest accruing on them is guaranteed by the State, and that the people will not permit. The people had as well be taxed to repair and complete the road as to be taxed to meet the interest upon such bonds. And if not by taxation or mortgage, then how? We trust that these gentlemen, some of whom are members of the General Assembly, will have something practical to say from their standpoint when that body shall convene.

We are satisfied that unless the road is sold, it will in a comparatively short time become unfitted for use, and the passage of trains over it will stop, and that for all practical purposes the actual existence of the Western North Carolina Railroad will be ended for the time being. You cannot run cars over rusted rails and rotten cross-ties. You cannot replace them with new material without money. You cannot get money without taxation or the assumption by the State of new bonded liabilities, which will require taxation to meet in the future. And the people who control this matter will not, under the circumstances, submit to such taxation or such assumption by the State of an additional bonded debt.

In this condition of affairs an outlet from the muddle is offered to the State, which will relieve its taxpaying citizens and do full justice to its Western people. An offer is made by gentlemen of assured financial strength and responsibility to take the road off the hands of the State, put it into good running condition, replace its worn-out rolling stock, complete it to Paint Rock and Ducktown, assume the present liability of the State for the payment of interest on $850,000 of bonded debt, secure to the State $550,000 for expenditures in the past, and pay the State a good sum annually for the hire of 500 convicts.

Does it not really seem that to fly from such a bargain will be an act of most supreme folly?

Cuticura

BLOOD AND SKIN HUMORS,

The Scourge of Mankind. Old Methods of Treatment and Remedies a Failure.

CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the Great Blood Purifier and Liver Stimulant, is the most searching, cleansing, and purifying agent of this country. It may be detected in the saliva, sweat, milk, blood, and urine in forty minutes after taking the first dose, showing that it has entered the circulation and been carried to every part of the system. It forever era dicates the virus of Syphilis, Scrofula, Cancer, and Canker, those terrible blood poisons that rot out the machinery of life filling the body with foul corruptions. Taken internally in conjunction with the external application of CUTICURA, the great Skin Cure, it speedily cures Scrofulous Ulcers and Old Sores, Salt Rheum, Psoriasis, Tetter, Ringworm, Scald Head, Dandruff, and all Itching and Scaly Diseases of the Skin and Scalp.

ECZEMA ON THE SCALP.

BREAST AND LIMBS CURED.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen—I cannot refrain from adding my debt of gratitude to you for having placed within my reach the wonderful CUTICURA REMEDIES, which have rendered unnecessary all further experiment of physicians, and in a remarkably short space of time have rid me of a loathsome disease. I dispensed with all physicians two years ago believing they did me no good. The CUTICURA has stopped this unsatisfactory expense—even if it were necessary and I had the courage any longer to follow their advice—and brought the long-looked-for cure and happiness.

I have been afflicted with Eczema or Salt Rheum on my scalp, breast, and limbs for five years, during which time I have been under the treatment of physicians, or at mineral springs, or taking some kind of medicine. I have been treated by Drs ——— of ———, Dr. ——— of ———, and visited sulphur springs and taken numbers of patent medicines, all without the faintest approach to a cure.

April 1st last, I began the use of CUTICURA, which was immediately successful in my case, entirely curing me. I have not had a clean scalp for 15 years until the use of CUTICURA entirely healed it and left it clean and healthy. The other parts of my body were affected in a more aggravated form, but are now completely heal d. I believe myself completely cured. I shall continue the CUTICURA RESOLVENT as directed, for its wonderful action on the stomach and bowels and cooling influence on the blood. It will afford me pleasure, as I have done in many cases, to urge the afflicted to use these wonderful remedies.

Yours, etc.,
STEPHEN CROWELL.

NEW BEDFORD, Sept. 30, 1878.

A RUNNING SORE

CURED IN ONE WEEK.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER:—Some three or four weeks ago I ordered a box of CUTICURA for a bad case of Salt Rheum. The back of one of my wife's hands was a running sore. In one week from the day it arrived her hand was well and has remained so up to to-day. E. P. DAGGETT.

MILFORD, ME., June 10, 1878.

NOTE.—Reader, don't you think these cures remarkable?

A Rare Chance for Investment.

Wishing to give my whole attention to the lumber trade, in which I am about to engage on a larger scale than ever before, I offer for sale on terms to suit the times the following valuable property in Cary:

I.

MY PLUG TOBACCO FACTORY, in a BRICK building 50x30 feet, 3 stories high, the lower story being two large storerooms. The Tobacco Machinery is new and has a capacity of manufacturing 1,000 lbs. per day. The factory has been worked a year, and a good beginning for a trade has been made. The building and the machinery will be sold together, or separately to suit purchasers.

II.

GRAIN MILLS, [illegible] in a 3 story brick building, 28x40 feet. Two Wheat Mills and one Corn Mill, new and complete with a capacity for grinding 100 bushels of wheat and 100 bushels of corn a day, and can compete in quality of flour with any mills in the State. The mills have had a very large local patronage during the past year. They are driven by a 60 HORSE POWER STEAM ENGINE, improved, of the make of Talbott & Sons, Richmond.

Attached to the engine is also a 60 Saw COTTON GIN and power press, at a safe distance (about 100 feet) in a different lot. The engine has a brick smoke-stack 60 feet high, making the danger from fire the least possible and the rate of insurance very low.

III.

Several well built and handsome residences, with lots and gardens of about 1 acre to each dwelling. They are wooden buildings, 2 stories high, with from 5 to 7 rooms each situated in desirable locations in the village.

Besides these, 4 one acre lots, with cottage buildings of 2 rooms.

Another Nuisance.

And almost as serious an one as the cow nuisance, is the frequent reports heard of highway robberies and attempted murders which have recently come to us. It appears that there is an organized band of three villians infesting the woods about the roads leading to Crabtree and Walnut Creeks. It has only been about two weeks since, when a gentleman, Mr. Hollis Horton by name, who lives about eight miles east of this city, came to town and disposed of some cotton brought with him. He started back at dark and was knocked in the head and robbed of $80.00 in money, and was left insensible in his wagon. This occurred about two miles from the Capitol.

On last Friday night a colored man named Noah Pierce started for Raleigh. When just the other side of Crabtree bridge he, too, was knocked in the head and remained senseless until Saturday morning. He was robbed of $7.50—all he had.

And now comes the report from a young man, whose father owns a farm east of here, who was attacked by robbers the other night while en route to the farm. He was mounted on a fleet horse, however, and escaped.

This state of things is getting to be alarming and every effort should be made by the proper authorities to hunt down the villains.

Board of Aldermen.

An adjourned meeting of the Board was held last night.

A great deal of routine business was transacted.

The question of licensing Mr. M. Bills to retail liquor on Fayetteville street (old Keuster place) was reconsidered, and Mr. Bills was licensed.

Mr. Fairchild made some complaints about a non-compliance of the Board's promises and contract.

The matter was referred to the old Nash Square Committee.

The Light Committee was also instructed to see after the Market-house light.

The Registrars and Poll-holders were also appointed.

Mr. George H. Williams was appointed Registrar at Large. The other Ward Registrars and Poll-holders will be announced in to-morrow's issue; we have not sufficient space now.

The cow question was next brought up, and it was apparent that the majority of the Board was in favor of abolishing the nuisance.

After a great deal of discussion it was agreed upon that the nuisances should not be allowed to prowl between the hours of 8 p. m. and sunrise from September 30 to March 31, and between 9 p. m. and sunrise from April 1 to October 1.

After the transaction of some minor business the Board adjourned.

An Open Letter. It Speaks for Itself

WEST TOWNSHEND, VT.

Mr. Editor: Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (mere dollar grabbers) would be glad if they could emblazon a similar cure in the papers. For 26 years I suffered with catarrh. The usual passage became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust," "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks," wouldn't work, though at intervals I would sniff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seven-eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package, and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nassal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common-sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second, nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly,

S. D. REMICK.

Reward.

We will pay a reward of one thousand dollars for any certificate published by us regarding Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup not found genuine.—Vogeler, Meyer & Co., Baltimore, October 1st, 1877.

Some weeks since the Postmaster General instructed postmasters to refuse to register letters or issue money orders addressed to the Louisiana State Lottery Company, of New Orleans, thus including this Company among those doing a fraudulent business. This most excellent remedy is becoming more popular with our people every day. It is one of the few medicines that improves on acquaintance—the more one knows of it, the more its virtues are appreciated. Everybody who has given it a fair trial, speak well of it. Our druggists sell large quantities of it. People are not afraid to use a medicine that they know to be efficient for their ailments, and at the same time harmless in its nature. Read what is so aptly said of it, in another column of this paper. Truth is mighty and will prevail. feb27 tf

Doctors Will Differ.

The following characteristic letter speaks for itself; is plain English; needs no interpreter. Read it:

NEW MADISON, OHIO,
February 18, 1880.

Messrs. Landrum & Litchfield, Abingdon, Va.:—Gentlemen: Inclosed find $5.00 for another half dozen bottles of the Seven Springs "Iron and Alum Mass." My wife's health is better this winter than it has been for years, and I have spent hundreds of dollars for medicines and physicians' bills, but the "Iron and Alum Mass" is the cheapest remedy I have found, and has done the most good, consequently I am encouraged to continue its use, notwithstanding our family physician says it is for RICH PEOPLE with nothing much the matter with them. Well, we are not rich, and I suppose it operates differently on POOR PEOPLE. My wife has been an invalid for years, and is getting better. "Doctors will differ." Send me the Mass. Experience is better than logic. Respectfully,

JAMES M. CARR.
